2. Disparate impact (neutral rule impacts disproportionately on a group);
3. Reprisal/retaliation against complainant or his/her family, associates or others involved in complaint process or exercising civil rights.

EXCEPTIONS

Initials:

Congress can establish a program that is intended for certain groups of people and it is not discrimination to exclude those who do not meet eligibility requirements. For example, Congress can set age limits, and this is not age discrimination for those who do not meet the age limits.

WHEN DO CIVIL RIGHTS RULES APPLY?

Initials:

Federal civil rights rules apply any time there is any federal financial assistance. Federal financial assistance is receiving anything of value from the federal government- not just cash. It can include commodities, training, equipment, and other goods and services.

LEGAL PROHIBITIONS

Initials:

The policy of the CDSS Food Assistance Programs is to not discriminate against any class of persons in the delivery of services to clients. CDSS expects local programs to provide food to every eligible person who seeks it, regardless of their status as a member of any class of persons. Any Eligible Recipient Agency (ERA) or local agency that directly or through a sub site is found to be discriminating against any class of people is at risk of termination from the program subsequent to an investigation.

FEDERAL PROTECTED CLASSES

Initials:

Under federal law, specific classes of persons have a right to file a federal discrimination complaint with USDA if an ERA program or local agency using federal resources discriminates against them.

Under federal law for the purposes of TEFAP and CSFP, the protected classes under which a client may file a discrimination complaint are race, color, national origin, sex, disability and age.

The state of California has additional protected classes including, religious creed and political beliefs.

Complaints based on these classes may be pursued at the state level.

It is also important to note that perception of belonging to a protected class and association with a member of a protected class are also covered in California under a general non-compliance section of the Government Code and may give rise to its own complaint outside of the USDA process.

Initials: _____

Do not talk about or make remarks about people receiving benefits. Never share information with others even if your intention is to help recipients with other services or assistance. Refer all requests for information about recipients from other agencies or programs to managers. Always get a recipient's written approval to share their information or make referrals on their behalf. What happens at the site stays at the site. CORRECTIVE ACTION FOR NON-COMPLYING AGENCIES

Initials: _____

If there is non-compliance with federal nondiscrimination law by the ERA or sub distributing site, the state will file a report with the USDA FNS Civil Rights Division and will immediately seek correction of the violation by voluntary compliance. Reasonable accommodation is a modification or adjustment to enable individuals with disabilities to have equal access to benefits and privileges of a service or program. Some examples are providing reserved parking for people with disabilities, wheelchair ramps, and chairs or shaded waiting areas for those who have mobility issues. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA for accommodations through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339 (English); or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish). Ask your supervisor for help in providing additional accommodations for people with disabilities. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) protects individuals with disabilities. CUSTOMER SERVICE

Initials: _____

Treat all people with dignity and respect. Follow the golden rule and treat people the way you would like to be treated. Customer service is an important part of the complaint process, most times people just want to tell their side of the story. A listening ear can make the difference between calming the person down or making the situation worse.

When handling a complaint:

1. Treat everyone equally.
